Dr. Doyle -

I truly cannot express my gratitude for your class & you this semester. I have never had a professor that I felt more loved & valued by. You were so intentional in getting to know each one of us & fostering an environment where we were all comfortable. I do not consider myself to be outgoing & yet still found myself getting excited to have conversations & get to know my classmates. There were numerous ^{times} where I came home after class & bragged to my roommates about how fun it was & how amazing my professor is. I even called my mom to express my gratitude for this class many times throughout the semester. In all my time at Baylor, this is the class where I have truly learned the most. I even saved your videos & assignments for future encouragement. Thank you again for being such a strong leader & expressing abundant generosity, intentionality, & sincerity.

-Anna Dulevitz

Little did I know that I would come to appreciate getting out of my comfort zone and stepping into the unknown. I can fully say that making that video was one of the best decisions of my academic career, but more importantly, but my personal life and character growth. It has been an absolute joy to be in your class and I thank you for ~~that~~ your genuine care you have show us all.

Dr. Doyle,

Your class was an absolute pleasure this semester. I had no idea what to expect coming into this class and I never thought I'd come out of a management class with such a smile on my face. I have learned so much in my time with you and you are truly one of the most genuine people I have ever met. I have learned so much from your class and I feel like you have created a community where we formed life-long friendships and learned more about ourselves, and each other than I could have ever imagined. I will never forget how uncomfortable I felt making the first introduction video and talking about my feelings with random strangers.

Dear Dr. Doyle

Thank you for being such a great professor, mentor, friend, influence...etc.! You will always be one of the best professors I've ever had. I pray that this ~~hindi~~ holiday season treats you well and brings you happiness. Thank you for all your wisdom, kindness, and vulnerability you've shared. You touch the hearts of so many students. We love you!

Many blessings,
Jada ♡

Dr. Doyle,

I just want to say how much I appreciate all you have done for this class this semester. You have obviously been going through a trying time but I think its remarkable we never even noticed. The love and genuine care you showed for our class every day was inspiring. You are one of the most genuinely caring individuals I have ever met, and this was so obvious in your interactions with all the students this semester. You have inspired me to show a similar love and genuine care for all those around me and I am so grateful for this. If you are ever down on your life in any way, just know you have directly influenced the lives of so many. I am fortunate enough to be one of these people. You, your family, and your situation at home are in my prayers. God is near to the broken hearted. You have a friend in me always.

We are so thankful for you. I can truly say that you are one of the most thoughtful and caring professors I have ever met.

Holly, jolly holidays,

and happy new year, too!

At the beginning of the semester, I brushed off your kindness. I didn't really take it to heart ~~but~~ because most professors don't invest in their students as much as you do. Thank you for caring. Thank you for being a professor that everyone looks forward to seeing.

Malee V.

It's because of you that I want to truly invest in my friendships at Baylor.

Dear Dr. Doyle,

This past semester has been wonderful with you. Having you as a professor was such a blessing. I came to class everyday looking forward to what insight & wisdom you had to offer. I think out of all my college classes I have had so far this has been & will be the one I will never forget. Thank you for taking so much time to invest in us as students.

I genuinely felt the care you gave to all of us. I also would like to thank you for being vulnerable with us. I know you are going through a hard time right now but know that everything will be okay! I'm saying this b/c when I feel like my world is tough, all I ever want is for someone to tell me it'll be okay.

Thank you for the great semester!!!

-Yun Chuah

Doyle!

You have been such a blessing to me and countless others this semester. You are such a genuine person and so clearly care for all of us individually. You are one of the first professors who I can tell actually care about me and my success. Thank you so much for a truly great semester, for loving us and treating us well. Reading your email brought me to tears and I can't imagine how hard this past semester has been for you. Despite that you show up and give us your all. However, as the semester continued and I listened to your lectures I quickly learned how much invaluable information you had to offer. Hi Professor Doyle,

Thank you for this class, this semester, and being such a great role model to look up to this year. You let us pour into you as much as you poured into us, which I feel is a rare quality in a professor. Having you as my professor was a cherry on top of my senior year, and I'm so grateful I met you. I'm sorry to hear the tough time you're going through, but just know your class is here for you just like you are here for us.

Thanks for teaching me so much about myself, management & how to be a better person.

I'll be praying for you
